The Honorable C. C. Torbert, Jr.
Chief Justice
Alabama Supreme Court

Dear Chief Justice Torbert:

In accordance with Section 12-5-10, Code of Alabama 1975, I am pleased to present the Annual Report for the Alabama Judicial System for the Fiscal Year 1987, which includes the period October 1, 1986, through September 30, 1987.

This fiscal year, the Alabama Judicial System again faced serious financial problems because of budget restrictions. With the concerted efforts of all members of the Alabama court system, we were able to ensure that the citizens of Alabama continued to receive quality judicial services while operating within the funds appropriated. Additional funding for the courts was appropriated by the state legislature for Fiscal Year 1988.

This year's Annual Report includes an overview of the organization and services of the Administrative Office of Courts which impact directly on the operation of the state courts. Statistical information on the processing of cases in the circuit and district courts is provided as an appendix to this report. These statistics are based on the fiscal year summaries for the state case reporting system as developed through case processing information prepared and submitted by the clerks and registers of our circuit and district courts. Statistical information on the work of the state's appellate courts, as provided by the clerks of the respective courts, is included in the main body of this report.

I sincerely hope that the information provided in this Annual Report will be of interest to the citizens of Alabama as well as those officials and other individuals who are directly involved in the operation of our state court system.

Sincerely,

Allen L. Tapley
Administrative Director of Courts

NEW JUDICIAL BUILDING. The Alabama Judicial Building Authority, a public corporation established by the 1986 Alabama Legislature, has been authorized to contract for architectural services and construction of a new state judicial building to house the appellate courts, the Administrative Office of Courts, and the State Law Library.

The building will be located on Dexter Avenue in downtown Montgomery. During FY 1987, the Building Authority proceeded with plans to acquire the proposed site for the new building. It is projected that the building will be completed in the early 1990s.

Chief Justice Names Task Force to Study State's Prisons

Chief Justice C. C. Torbert, Jr., as chairman of the Judicial Study Commission, appointed a task force in September 1987 to study Alabama's prison overcrowding.

The State Judicial Study Commission accepted responsibility for making recommendations concerning the incarceration of prisoners and how they are housed and to study and develop plans to prevent future prison overcrowding in the state's corrections system. The Commission was requested to undertake this responsibility by the U. S. District Court's Prison Implementation Committee which has been monitoring and overseeing the system since 1984.

The Study Commission authorized Chief Justice Torbert to appoint a task force to make a study of the current conditions of the state's prisons and report its findings to the Commission.

The task force will study the housing of inmates, criminal rehabilitation, criminal punishment methods and procedures, the parole system, the treatment of crime victims, and prison conditions generally and will make recommendations which will permit the corrections system to operate effectively and efficiently and prevent future prison overcrowding.

Second Interagency Conference on Youth Held

Approximately 400 representatives of the courts, schools, social services, mental health, and youth services gathered in Montgomery in September for the second Annual Interagency Conference on Youth.

The two-day conference agenda, prepared by the Interagency Committee on Youth, chaired by Montgomery Circuit Judge John Davis, included programs on permanency planning, early identification programs for children at risk, court/truancy school programs, alternative schools, adolescent pregnancy programs, and substance abuse prevention and treatment programs.

An interagency agreement, signed in FY 1986 by the Chief Justice and heads of the departments of Education, Mental Health, Youth Services, and Human Resources, and the Administrative Director of Courts, pledges support to develop and improve the delivery of services to the youth of Alabama.

The Interagency Conference brings together representatives of these agencies to discuss innovative programs both in-state and out-of-state to enhance the quality and scope of juvenile services through interagency cooperation and coordination.

Weighted Caseload System Ordered by State Supreme Court

In February, the Alabama Supreme Court ordered that a weighted caseload system recommended by the Circuit and District Judges Weighted Caseload Committees be adopted as additional criteria for determining the need for additional judgeships or changes in judicial boundaries. This order came two years after the two committees, chaired by Presiding Circuit Judge J. Edward Tease, 11th Judicial Circuit (Lauderdale County), and District Judge Charles A. Thigpen (Hale County), were appointed by the Chief Justice to study and make recommendations to the Supreme Court on a weighted caseload system.

A committee chaired by Circuit Judge Richard Dorrough, 15th Judicial Circuit (Montgomery County), and consisting of two circuit judges, five district judges, five circuit clerks, one register, and one district clerk has been appointed to develop uniform filing and reporting procedures necessary to implement the weighted caseload reporting system. The committee is expected to complete its task in the first half of FY 1988.

Fair Trial Tax Fund Deficit Reduced

The state fair trial tax fund ended the fiscal year with a deficit of $85,367.

Revenues for this fiscal year totaled $5,969,065, an increase of 16.4 percent over revenues collected in FY 1986. Disbursements totaled $6,054,432, leaving a deficit of $85,367. These figures include $275,000 in FY 1986 claims brought forward to this year, as well as the State Comptroller's charge of $50,000 for administering the fund.

In FY 1986, the fair trial tax fund ended the year with an operating deficit of $534,503. To maintain the solvency of the fund, $485,000 was transferred from the General Fund, leaving a final paper deficit of $49,503.

This fiscal year, 20 circuits reported fair trial tax revenues in excess of expenditures. The largest surplus of $104,934 was reported in the 13th Judicial Circuit (Mobile County). For the second year, the 23rd Judicial Circuit (Madison County) reported the second highest surplus of $72,303, followed by the 2nd Judicial Circuit (Butler, Crenshaw and Lowndes counties) with $59,712. The 19th Judicial Circuit (Autauga, Chilton and Elmore counties) reported the 4th largest surplus of $53,163.

*Includes $485,000 transferred from the General Fund to maintain solvency of the Fair Trial Tax Fund.

Of the total fair trial tax fund revenues generated during the year, $233,665 was collected through the court-appointed attorney fee recoupment program. By law, the courts are provided the authority to require convicted defendants to reimburse the state for court-appointed attorneys' fees when defendants are financially able.

Chief Justice C. C. Torbert, Jr., has appointed a committee under the Judicial Study Commission to continue studying indigent defense services. This committee, chaired by Presiding Judge Ben McLauchlin, 33rd Judicial Circuit (Dale and Geneva counties), will make recommendations on improved systems for screening applicants for indigent services, reviewing attorney bills, and promoting recoupment of attorney fees. The committee will also review current laws and rules pertaining to indigent defense services and will make recommendations for change, as necessary. The recommendations of this committee will be submitted to the Judicial Study Commission and to the Joint Legislative Fiscal Committee.

Child Support Guidelines Adopted by State Supreme Court

In FY 1987, the Child Support Enforcement Committee, chaired by Presiding Judge Clatus K. Junkin, 24th Judicial Circuit (Fayette, Lamar, and Pickens counties) and a subcommittee of Circuit and District Judges on Child Support Guidelines developed guidelines for the determination of child support obligations. The proposed guidelines, including the appropriate forms, were adopted by the Alabama Supreme Court as Rule 32, Alabama Rules of Judicial Administration, and will become effective on October 1, 1987.

It is anticipated that the adoption of these child support guidelines will increase the number of settlements and reduce the amount of court time spent on child support cases.

The Child Support Enforcement Committee was appointed in FY 1986 by Chief Justice C. C. Torbert, Jr., to analyze changes mandated by the 1984 Amendments to the Social Security Act and to make appropriate recommendations.

Jury Trials and Juror Expenses

Four additional counties implemented the one-step juror summoning process in FY 1987, bringing the total number of counties utilizing this alternative juror selection and qualification process to 53.

Jefferson County implemented the one-step procedure in Birmingham and Bessemer in January 1987. Cherokee, DeKalb and Talladega counties also implemented the system during this fiscal year.

The one-step juror summoning procedure combines the summoning and qualifying process and has resulted in a significant reduction in the cost of summoning jurors since it was implemented in FY 1982. A total of 119,911 summons were issued by the Administrative Office of Courts in FY 1987.

In addition, 33,900 electronically generated juror qualification forms were prepared this fiscal year by the Administrative Office of Courts for 11 counties which utilize the two-step qualification/summoning process.

A total of 3,458 jury trials were held in Alabama during this fiscal year. Of these, 1,784 were criminal trials and 1,459 were civil trials. Settlements were reached in 215 trials after the formation of the jury and no verdict was rendered.

Change: 1983-87	460	$29	-$182,484	-$4,501
	15.3%	5.5%	-92.0%	-5.1%

Jurors received $10 a day for each day of service and a mileage allowance of five cents per mile. In FY 1987, $1.9 million was spent in payment of juror fees. This equates to an average cost per trial of $553, an increase of $18 or 3.4 percent over the cost reported for the previous year.

The 25th Judicial Circuit (Marion and Winston counties) reported the lowest cost per jury trial of $215.98, followed by the 19th Judicial Circuit (Autauga, Chilton and Elmore counties) which reported an average juror cost per trial of $264.04.

In Alabama, jury commissioners, who are appointed by the Governor, are responsible for the development of the county's master juror list. This master list must be reviewed and corrected once every four years. Jury commissioners are also responsible for the preparation of the master juror box which must be emptied and refilled during every even numbered year. They are paid $10 for each day they are actually engaged in the discharge of their duties. Legislation enacted in 1983 requires the presiding circuit judge to issue a written order authorizing the commission to meet.

Jury commission expenses totaled $15,855 in FY 1987, a decrease of $1,279, or 7.5 percent from the previous year. Jury commission expenses have decreased a total of $182,484 or 92 percent since FY 1983. The one-step juror summoning and qualification process has contributed greatly to the decrease in jury commission expenses.

Juror sequestration expenses for 1987 totaled $84,585, a decrease of $1,199 or 1.4 percent over expenses reported in FY 1986. Juror sequestration costs, however, have been reduced by $4,501 or 5.1 percent since FY 1983.

Juror orientation video tapes were distributed to trial courts requesting them this year.

Chief Justice Leads National Groups

Chief Justice C. C. Torbert, Jr., was elected chairman of the National Conference of Chief Justices at the national meeting in Rapid City, South Dakota, in August. By virtue of this position, he is also the chairman of the board of the National Center for State Courts.

Torbert has served as chairman of the board for the State Justice Institute based in Washington, D. C., since 1986. He was appointed by President Ronald Reagan.

Judicial Finances

The Alabama courts are funded through state General Fund appropriations. For FY 1987, state appropriations to the judicial branch totaled $61.9 million, which included $6.2 million for the operation of the appellate courts and $55.7 million for the operation of the trial courts and the Administrative Office of Courts.

FY 1987, the courts reported revenues totaling $36.5 million, an increase of approximately $2.5 million over revenues reported for the previous year. This increase can be attributed to an increase in case filings.

Revenues collected through the trial courts are distributed in accordance with state statutes. For this fiscal year, 76.7 percent of the total revenues reported, or $28 million, was transmitted to the State Comptroller. Of this amount $23.8 million, or 65 percent of the total revenues, was earmarked for the state General Fund, the major appropriation source for the state judicial system.

Expenditures for the trial courts, exclusive of the appellate courts, totaled $55.7 million, an increase of $0.8 million, or 1.5 percent. This increase can be attributed to additional costs for personnel and routine employee benefits which increased the personnel expenses by $2.5 million, or 4.5 percent.

Retired Judges Hear State Employee Appeals

Seven retired judges assisted the Alabama State Personnel Board by serving as hearing officers in 56 state employee appeals during FY 1987.

These retired judges serve without additional compensation, receiving only the standard state per diem for travel. In addition to generating a substantial savings for the personnel board and the state in general, their service assures speedy hearings of appeals and reduces the potential liability by the state for back pay.

Retired judges who served this year as hearing officers are: Ingram Beasley and Thomas E. Huey, Jr., Birmingham; Walter G. Bridges, Bessemer; Newton B. Powell, Decatur; William L. Byrd, Daphne; Robert E. Hodnette, Mobile; and B. M. Miller Childers, Selma.

FY 1987-88 Budget Adopted by Legislature

The legislature passed a general fund budget for FY 1987-88 of $635 million with $58.5 million appropriated to the state courts. The court system received an additional $7.2 million from Act 87-405 which increased docket fees in the circuit, district, and municipal courts. The total appropriation of $65.7 million amounts to a 6.8 percent increase in the budgets for the trial and appellate courts for FY 1987-88.

THE COURT SYSTEM

APPELLATE COURTS

The Alabama appellate courts consist of a Supreme Court and two courts of appeals: the Court of Civil Appeals and the Court of Criminal Appeals.

SUPREME COURT

The Supreme Court, the highest state court in Alabama, is composed of a chief justice and eight associate justices, each elected statewide for a term of six years. The Supreme Court has the power to superintend and review any case tried, heard, or appealed in any other court in the state. It has exclusive appellate jurisdiction over all suits at law where the amount in controversy exceeds $10,000 and all appeals from orders of the Alabama Public Service Commission involving utility rates. The court has rule-making power and has authority to promulgate administrative regulations to ensure the efficient and speedy administration of justice. The Supreme Court may answer questions of state law certified by a court of the United States and is authorized by law to give advisory opinions to the governor and the legislature on important constitutional questions.

The caseload of the Supreme Court increased by 6.7 percent, or 152 cases, during FY 1987. A total of 2,419 cases was docketed with the Supreme Court this year. The number of cases docketed includes 1,674 new filings and 745 cases which were carried over from the previous term of court.

A total of 1,671 cases was disposed by the court, of which 668 cases were disposed through the issuance of written opinions. This represents an average of 74 written opinions per justice.

Case filings and dispositions in the Supreme Court for the five-year period including FY 1983 through FY 1987 are shown on the accompanying table. During this five-year period, filings in the

Supreme Court increased by 370 cases or 28 percent. Dispositions increased by 34 percent or 426 cases.

COURT OF CRIMINAL APPEALS

The Court of Criminal Appeals is a five-member body composed of a presiding judge and four judges. The court has exclusive appellate jurisdiction of all misdemeanors including violations of municipal ordinances, all felonies, and all post-conviction writs in criminal cases. The court also has original jurisdiction in the issuance of remedial writs necessary to give it general superintendence and control of jurisdictions inferior to it in matters over which it has exclusive appellate jurisdiction. Judgments of the Court of Criminal Appeals may be reviewed by the state Supreme Court by the granting of a petition for writ of certiorari. Capital cases are automatically reviewed by the Supreme Court.

During FY 1987, the total number of cases before the Court of Criminal Appeals decreased by 2 percent, from 2,393 cases the previous year to 2,343 cases. New filings totaled 1,695 with 648 cases brought forward from FY 1986.

A total of 1,819 cases was disposed by the court. Of this number, 448 were disposed with opinions; 1,061 were disposed without opinions and 310 cases were decided en banc.

Of the cases disposed by the court, 72 percent, or 1,312 cases, were affirmed; 15 percent, or 273 cases were dismissed; and 10 percent, or 173 cases, were either reversed and remanded or reversed and remanded with directions for additional trial action. Of the1,819 cases disposed, the court reversed and rendered the decision in only 13 cases. This represents less than 1 percent of the total appeals disposed.

At the close of the fiscal year, 524 appeals were carried over to the next term of court. This represents a 19 percent decrease over the number of appeals carried forward in the previous year.

This year, retired Judge Leigh M. Clark continued to assist the court on a full-time basis.

COURT OF CIVIL APPEALS

The Court of Civil Appeals, composed of a presiding judge and two associate judges, was created by the Alabama Legislature in 1969. The court has original appellate jurisdiction in all civil appeals where the amount in controversy does not exceed $10,000, all appeals from administrative agencies other than the Alabama Public Service Commission, all appeals in workmen's compensation cases, and all appeals in domestic relations cases, including annulment, divorce, adoption, and child custody cases.

For FY 1987, the Court of Civil Appeals reported a total caseload of 853 cases. This figure includes 584 new filings and 269 cases which, at the close of the previous term, were either not ready for submission or on appeal to the Alabama Supreme Court.

The Court of Civil Appeals disposed of 518 cases. Of these cases, 339 or 65 percent were decided with opinions and 179 were decided without opinions.

Of those cases decided with written opinions, 73 percent were affirmed; 18 percent were reversed; 6 percent were affirmed in part and reversed in part; and 3.5 percent were disposed by dismissal or petition for extraordinary relief granted or denied. All decisions of the court are made en banc. Each judge is required to review each case submitted to the court.

Of those cases submitted to the Court of Civil Appeals this fiscal year, 5 percent were argued and submitted and 95 percent were submitted on briefs. Of the orally argues cases, 31 percent were affirmed. Of those cases submitted on brief, 80 percent were affirmed. There were 119 applications for rehearing. Of these, 111 petitions for certiorari were sought in the state Supreme Court. Of the petitions for certiorari submitted for review by the Alabama Supreme Court, 89 percent were upheld.

In January 1987, Presiding Judge L. Charles Wright, who was originally appointed to the Court of Civil Appeals in 1969, retired. Judge Robert Bradley assumed the duties of the presiding judge. Kenneth F. Ingram was elected to fill the vacancy on the court.

During this fiscal year, two retired judges provided assistance to the Court of Civil Appeals. Retired Circuit Judge Edward N. Scruggs assisted the court on a full-time basis, and retired Appellate Judge Wright continued to assist the court part-time.

TRIAL COURTS

The Alabama trial courts consist of a court of general jurisdiction known as the circuit court, a court of limited jurisdiction known as the district court, a probate court, and such municipal courts as may be established.

CIRCUIT COURT

The circuit court is the state's trial court of general jurisdiction. The 67 counties in Alabama are divided into 39 judicial circuits which are composed of from one to five counties. There are 124 circuit judges, and each circuit has from one to twenty-four resident circuit judges. By law, circuit court is held in every county in the state.

The circuit court jurisdiction, generally, is as follows:

- Civil - Exclusive original jurisdiction of all civil actions in which the matter in controversy exceeds $5,000 and original jurisdiction concurrent with the district court in civil actions in which the matter in controversy exceeds $1,000 exclusive of interest and cost.

- Criminal - Exclusive original jurisdiction of all felony prosecutions and/or misdemeanors or ordinance violations which are lesser included offenses within a felony charge or which arise from the same incident as a felony charge, except that the district court has concurrent jurisdiction with the circuit court to receive pleas of guilty in felony cases not punishable by sentence of death.

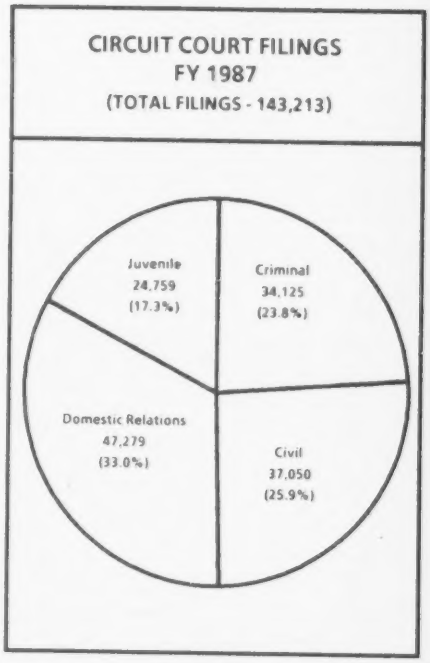
- Juvenile - Original concurrent jurisdiction with the district court in proceedings involving the following: children alleged to be delinquent, dependent, or in need or supervision; traffic offenses transferred to juvenile court; determining custody or appointing legal custodian or guardian of a child who is otherwise before the court; removal of disability of non-age; interstate compact on juveniles; commitment of mentally ill or retarded children; adoption, when such proceedings are removed from probate court; and termination of parental rights.

- Appellate - Appellate jurisdiction of civil, criminal, and juvenile cases in district court and prosecutions for ordinance violations in municipal courts, except in cases in which direct appeal to the appellate courts is provided by law or rule. Appeals to the circuit court are tried de novo, with or without a jury, as provided by law.

All time highs were again reported for case filings in the circuit courts during FY 1987 with an increase of 11,567 cases or 8.8 percent. Statewide, all circuit court jurisdictions reported an increase in case filings. The largest was in the juvenile jurisdiction where filings increased by 6,567 cases or 36.1 percent.

Case filing and disposition trends for the five-year period, FY 1983-FY 1987 are presented on the accompanying circuit court statistical table. As shown, over the five-year period, total circuit court filings have increased by 16,994 cases or 13.5 percent.

The largest increase was reported in the juvenile jurisdiction. Juvenile case filings increased from 16,892 cases in FY 1983 to 24,759 cases in FY 1987, an increase of 7,867 cases or 46.6 percent. Civil case filings increased by 6,459 cases or 21.1 percent for this five-year period while criminal case filings increased by only 2,052 cases or 6.4 percent. Case filings and dispositions in the domestic relations jurisdiction of the circuit court have remained fairly constant through the years with only slight annual fluctuations.



Dispositions in the circuit courts decreased by 313 cases or 0.2% in FY 1987. Dispositions totaled 132,894 cases this year. Over the five-year period, dispositions in the circuit courts increased by 4,604 cases or approximately 4 percent. Substantial increases were reported in the civil jurisdiction of the court. Civil case dispositions increased from 29,056 cases in FY 1983 to 34,329 cases in FY 1987, or 18.1 percent for the five-year period. Juvenile dispositions increased by 1,606 cases or 8.9 percent between FY 1983 and FY 1987, while the criminal jurisdiction reported a decrease of 1,244 dispositions or 3.7 percent.

During this fiscal year, 13 of the state's 39 circuits reported more dispositions than filings, thereby reducing their pending caseloads.

DISTRICT COURT

The district court is the state trial court of limited jurisdiction. There is a district court in each county. Sessions of court are held in each county seat and in each municipality of 1,000 or more population where no municipal court exists. The district court is a non-jury court of record. There are 95 district judges, and each district court has from one to eleven district judges.

The district court jurisdiction, generally, is as follows:

- Civil - Original civil jurisdiction concurrent with the circuit court in civil actions in which the matter in controversy does not exceed $5,000 and civil actions based on unlawful detainer.
- Small Claims - Exclusive jurisdiction over all civil actions in which the matter in controversy, exclusive of interest and costs, does not exceed $1,000.
- Criminal Misdemeanors - Exclusive original trial jurisdiction over prosecutions of all offenses defined by law or ordinance as misdemeanors, except prosecutions by municipalities having municipal courts.
- Criminal Felonies - Original jurisdiction concurrent with the circuit court to receive pleas of guilty in prosecutions of offenses defined by law as felonies not punishable by sentence of death. Jurisdiction to hold preliminary hearings in prosecutions for felonies as provided by law.
- Criminal Traffic - Exclusive original jurisdiction of misdemeanor prosecutions for traffic infractions, except ordinance infractions prosecuted in municipal court.
- Juvenile - Concurrent jurisdiction with the circuit court.

Case filings in the district courts increased by 34,256 cases or 6.4 percent in FY 1987. With the exception of small claims, which reported a decrease of 1.3 percent or 1,545 cases, all other district court jurisdictions reported increased filings for the year. Traffic filings increased by 30,024 cases or 12.7 percent. Slight increases were also reported in the criminal, civil, and juvenile jurisdictions.

Case filing and disposition trends for the five-year period between FY 1983 and FY 1987 are presented on the accompanying district court statistical table. Total filings for the five-year period increased by 97,504 cases or 20.5 percent. Traffic filings increased from 208,030 cases in FY 1983 to 266,652 cases in FY 1987. This represents an increase of 28.2 percent or 58,622 cases.

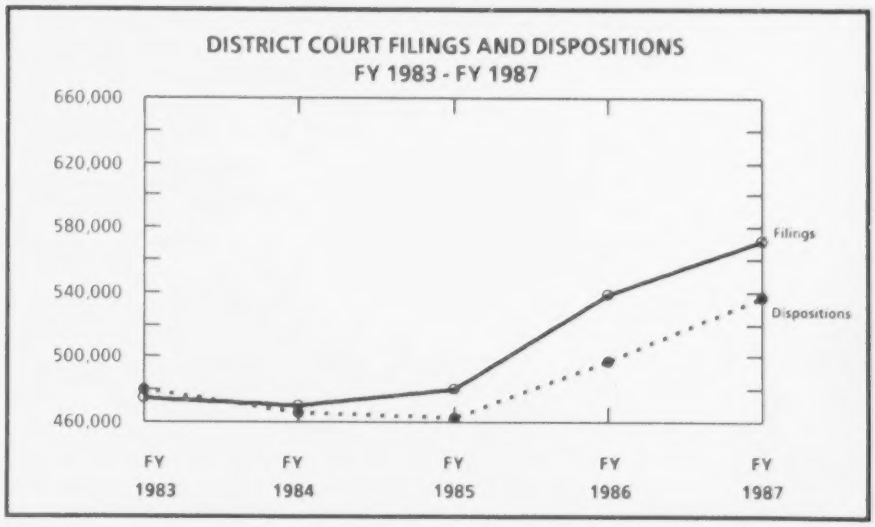
The most dramatic increase in filings for the five-year period was in the small claims jurisdiction with an increase of 40.8 percent or 32,942 cases reported. This increase and the resultant decrease in civil case filings is attributed to the change in jurisdiction in the small claims court from a limit of $500 to a limit of $1,000. Many cases now being filed in small claims court would previously have been filed in the civil division. The civil jurisdiction reported a decrease in filings between FY 1983 and FY 1987 of 6,676 cases or 12.7 percent. Criminal case filings increased by 7.7 percent and juvenile case filings by approximately 16 percent.



Dispositions in the district court increased by 39,422 cases or approximately 8 percent between FY 1986 and FY 1987. Increases in dispositions were reported in all jurisdictions of the district court for this fiscal year.

FY 1983 through FY 1987, total dispositions increased by 11.9 percent or 57,184 cases. Dispositions in the civil jurisdiction decreased by 21.7 percent or 12,053 cases while small claims dispositions increased by 22,536 cases or 27 percent. Again, this decrease can be attributed to the change in small claims jurisdiction and the shifting of cases between these two divisions of court. During the five-year period, traffic dispositions increased by 19.6 percent; criminal dispositions by 1.7 percent; and juvenile dispositions by 13.9 percent.

During FY 1987, six of the states 67 district courts reduced their pending caseloads by disposing of more cases than were filed.

MUNICIPAL COURT

The Municipal Court is a court of limited jurisdiction established in each municipal corporation, except those which abolish their courts by ordinance in accordance with Section 12-14-17, Code of Alabama, 1975. Currently, there are 283 municipal courts which are served by 224 municipal judges.

The jurisdiction of the municipal court, generally, is as follows:

- Jurisdiction over all prosecutions for the breach of municipal ordinances within its police jurisdiction.
- Concurrent jurisdiction with the district court of all acts constituting misdemeanor offenses and violations under state law committed within the police jurisdiction of the municipality which may be prosecuted as breaches of municipal ordinances.

Where a municipality elects to abolish its court, the jurisdiction of the court is transferred to the district court. The district court is required to hold sessions in those municipalities where the municipal court has been abolished and the population is over 1,000. Any municipality which has abolished its court may subsequently reestablish the municipal court by ordinance.

In FY 1987, five municipalities abolished their municipal courts, and three municipalities reestablished their courts. Seventy-eight municipalities now utilize the district courts for the adjudication of ordinance violations.

PROBATE COURT

The probate courts in Alabama have original and general jurisdiction over the probate of wills, the granting of letters testamentary, the rights of executorship, the settlement of accounts of executors and administrators, the sale of estate properties, the appointment and removal of guardians for minors and persons of unsound mind, guardianships allotments of dower and land, partition of lands with the respective county, and name changes. There is a probate court in every county. Several probate judges also serve as chairmen of their county commissions.

While constitutionally a part of the Alabama Judicial System, the probate courts are not included in the budget for the Alabama Judicial System and are administered locally by the respective probate judges. Funding for the probate courts is provided through the county governments or through fees generated in probate court.

JUDGE ASSIGNMENTS

The Chief Justice of the Alabama Supreme Court has the authority under the state constitution to assign active trial judges outside their circuits and retired trial judges to duty in the appellate, circuit, district and probate courts. The Supreme Court also has authority to assign attorneys to serve as judges in these courts.

Active and retired judges may be assigned by the Chief Justice to hear specific cases in which incumbent judges recuse themselves or when circumstances require temporary service on the bench. In FY 1987, assignments for temporary service in all courts equaled 577 days. Active judges and attorneys, as well as retired judges, were assigned to hear 195 cases in circuit court, 94 cases in district court, and 20 cases in probate or municipal court during the year. Based on an average of two days per circuit court case and one day per district, probate, or municipal court case, these cases and temporary service assignments represent a total of 1,081 judge days or the equivalent of 5 additional judges' service to the state courts. Sixty-six percent of these assignments were accepted by 59 active circuit judges and 41 active district judges; 23 percent were accepted by 22 retired judges; and 11 percent were accepted by 22 attorneys.

Periods of stand-by service are performed by judges and attorneys; however, as the service is not recorded, no statistics on length of service are available.

In addition to individual case assignments, temporary service, and stand-by service, retired judges have continued or accepted regular part-time assignments to circuit and district courts. Retired judges provide this assistance to the circuit courts in the 10th, 12th and 13th Judicial Circuits, as well as the district courts in Jefferson and Mobile counties. These judges may be called to the bench by the local presiding circuit judge whenever needed, and no separate statistics are available on the number of days they served or the number of cases they helped to dispose.

Retired circuit judges continue to provide assistance to intermediate courts of appeal. During FY 1987, one retired circuit judge assisted the Court of Criminal Appeals, and one retired circuit judge assisted the Court of Civil Appeals.

Not included in the regular judge assignment statistics are the additional duties for selected district judges authorized by the Supreme Court; assignments of circuit and district judges within a circuit by the presiding circuit judge pursuant to Rule 13, Alabama Rules of Judicial Administration; assignment of attorneys to the district courts of Jefferson and Mobile counties by special order of the Supreme Court; or the appointments of referees or general masters by judges to hear specific cases under the authority granted in the Code of Alabama 1975 and certain rules of court.

It should be noted that while on judicial assignment, neither active nor retired circuit and district judges receive additional salary or additional retirement compensation. They are reimbursed travel expenses as provided by statute for state employees.

Additional judge services, provided by active trial judges accepting out-of-circuit assignments and retired judges on active duty, provide direct benefits to the Alabama judiciary and the people of this state by helping to ensure that the dockets of courts throughout the state remain current.

CLERKS AND REGISTERS

There is an office of the circuit clerk in every county and in the Bessemer Division of the 10th Judicial Circuit. Circuit clerks are elected for a term of six years. The duties of the circuit clerks include the issuance of process and the maintenance of all court records as required by law or rule in their respective courts. In FY 1987, separate registers offices for the processing of equity cases were located in 13 counties.

The Supreme Court may authorize the appointment of a district court clerk who is responsible for issuance of process and the maintenance of all court records as required by law or rule in the district court. Separate district clerks' offices have been established in five counties. These counties are Calhoun, Cullman, Morgan, Mobile, and Tuscaloosa. In FY 1987, Jewel Ryals, district court clerk for Montgomery County, retired. The duties of the district court clerk's office were assumed by the circuit court clerk. Except as authorized by the Supreme Court, the circuit clerk serves as ex-officio clerk of the district court.

Court Organizations

JUDICIAL DISCIPLINE

Alabama has a two-tiered system for judicial discipline: The Judicial Inquiry Commission which investigates complaints brought against judges; and the Court of the Judiciary which hears charges brought by the Judicial Inquiry Commission. The current two-tiered system was established in December 1973 to replace a single-tiered Judicial Commission which had been created two years earlier.

JUDICIAL INQUIRY COMMISSION

The Judicial Inquiry Commission is the body which hears and investigates complaints brought against judges of the state. It has the authority to conduct investigations and receive or initiate complaints concerning any judge in the state judicial system. Where warranted, the Commission may file a complaint with the Court of the Judiciary charging a judge with a violation of any canon of judicial ethics, misconduct in office, or failure to perform his duties. The Commission may also charge that a judge is physically or mentally unable to perform his duties. The Commission has subpoena power and the authority to appoint and direct its staff. Investigations of the Commission are confidential.

The Commission is composed of one appellate judge appointed by the Supreme Court, two circuit judges appointed by the Association of Circuit Judges, two attorneys appointed by the State Board of Bar Commissioners, and two non-lawyer citizens appointed by the Governor. Commission members are appointed for terms of four years and serve without pay.

During FY 1987, the Judicial Inquiry Commission considered 103 complaints which resulted in 12 investigations. Of this number, 87 complaints were without sufficient cause or basis; 13 were outside the jurisdiction of the Commission; 1 complaint was resolved by the Commission through meeting with the judge in question; and 2 complaints are pending.

Since its creation in 1973, the Judicial Inquiry Commission has considered 1187 complaints. Of these complaints, 311 resulted in investigations; 345 were without sufficient cause or basis; 752 were outside the jurisdiction of the Commission; 12 complaints were canceled; 55 complaints were resolved by the Commission through meeting with the judge in question and 5 complaints were resolved when the judge in question, retired. Eighteen complaints were resolved by the filing of formal charges with the Court of the Judiciary.

Judge William M. Bowen, Jr., Court of Criminal Appeals, was appointed to the Commission on November 3, 1986, by the Alabama Supreme Court to succeed Judge Richard L. Holmes, Court of Civil Appeals. Judge Braxton Kittrell, 13th Judicial Circuit, was named to the Commission on January 20, 1987, to succeed Judge Kenneth Ingram.

COURT OF THE JUDICIARY

The Court of the Judiciary is a five-member body which hears complaints filed by the Judicial Inquiry Commission. The Court is composed of one appellate judge who is selected by the Supreme Court and serves as chief judge of the Court, two circuit judges appointed by the Association of Circuit Judges, and two members of the state bar appointed by the Board of Bar Commissioners.

Honorable J. Edward Tease Judge, 11th Judicial Circuit
Honorable William C. Sullivan Judge, 29th Judicial Circuit
William D. Scruggs, Esquire Fort Payne, Alabama

The Court has the authority, after notice and public hearing, to remove from office, suspend without pay, censure, or apply such other sanctions as prescribed by law to any judge for a violation of a Canon of Judicial Ethics, misconduct in office, or failure to perform his duties. The Court may also suspend, with or without pay, or retire a judge who is physically or mentally unable to perform his duties. Decisions of the Court of the Judiciary may be appealed to the State Supreme Court which reviews the record of proceedings on the law and the facts. The Supreme Court adopts rules governing the procedures of the Court. Counsel for the prosecution of cases before the Court is provided by the state attorney general's office. The clerk of the Court of Civil Appeals serves as secretary of the Court of the Judiciary.

Judge Richard Holmes was appointed chief judge of the Court, on November 3, 1986, succeeding Judge L. Charles Wright.

Two complaints were filed with the Court during 1987. One was concluded with a six-month suspension. The other was pending at the end of the fiscal year.

JUDICIAL COMPENSATION COMMISSION

Alabama's Judicial Compensation Commission is a constitutional body charged with recommending the state salary and expense allowances to be paid all judges except municipal and probate judges.

The Commission may submit a report to the legislature at any time within the first five calendar days of any session. To become effective, the report of the Commission must be confirmed by a joint resolution of both houses. The legislature may, by act, alter the Commission's recommendations.

The Commission consists of five members appointed for terms of four years: one appointed by the governor; one by the president of the senate; one by the speaker of the house; and two by the Board of Bar Commissioners. Members of the Judicial Compensation Commission cannot hold any other public or political party office nor can they be eligible for appointment to any state judicial office while serving or within two years of serving on the Commission.

J. Clewis Trucks, Chairman Fairfield, Alabama
Broox G. Garrett Brewton, Alabama
Charles R. Adair, Jr. Dadeville, Alabama
Finis E. St. John, IV Cullman, Alabama

The Commission's report to the 1987 regular session of the legislature recommended that the state's circuit judges receive whatever percentage increase might be provided to state employees generally. The Commission recommended that the salaries of appellate and district justices and judges be fixed as has been designated by state law. State employees did not receive a salary increase in 1987 and the legislature did not act on the report of the Commission.

JUDICIAL STUDY COMMISSION

In 1971, the Alabama Legislature created a study commission on the Alabama judicial system for the purpose of continuously studying "the judicial system of the state, the courts of the state, the administration of justice in Alabama, criminal rehabilitation, criminal punishment methods and procedures, and all matters relating directly or indirectly to the administration of justice in Alabama and [making] recommendations thereto."

The Judicial Study Commission is a 32-member body. Membership includes the lieutenant governor, speaker of the house, the legal advisor to the governor, a member of the attorney general's staff, six members of the state senate, six members of the state house of representatives, and the members of the Judicial Conference. The Judicial Conference is composed of the chief justice of the Alabama Supreme Court, two associate justices, a judge from each intermediate court of appeals, three circuit judges, two district judges, two municipal judges, three lawyers, and one probate judge.

district judges, two municipal judges, three lawyers, and one probate judge.

In addition, an advisory section consisting of three clerks and registers, three district attorneys, and three law enforcement officials has been established.

Lane W. Mann has served as Director of the Alabama Judicial Study Commission since his appointment in February 1987.

During the 1987 fiscal year, the Judicial Study Commission met on two occasions. At the annual meeting in Montgomery on May 6, the Commission received reports from its Child Support Enforcement Committee and its Interagency Committee on Youth.

A special meeting of the Judicial Study Commission was called in September to consider a request by the Prison Implementation Committee that the Commission study and address problems associated with prison overcrowding. Accordingly, the Commission authorized Chief Justice C. C. Torbert, Jr., to appoint a prison review task force. The task force, which is chaired by Allen L. Tapley, Administrative Director of Courts, will present its preliminary findings and recommendations to the entire Commission at its annual meeting in January 1988.

Since the last meeting in September, Chief Justice Torbert, Chairman, has appointed two new subcommittees. The Indigent Defense Committee will review current law and procedures and prepare recommendations to further improve the administration of indigent services in Alabama. The Criminal Minute Entries Committee will study and evaluate the entry of judgments in criminal cases and will recommend procedures that will help establish uniformity throughout the state with regard to criminal minutes. Committee reports will be presented to the Commission in January 1988.

Judicial Administration

The Chief Justice of the Alabama Supreme Court is the chief administrative officer of the state's court system and is authorized to appoint an Administrative Director of Courts and other personnel to assist him in the performance of his administrative responsibilities.

The Administrative Office of Courts, under the direction of the Administrative Director of Courts, is charged with providing the centralized, state level administrative support necessary to the operation of the state court system; the development of improved procedures and systems to increase the operational capacity of the courts; and the collection and dissemination of information necessary for the development of policy and the efficient operation of the courts.

Following is a detailed discussion of the responsibilities and accomplishments of the Administrative Office of Courts.

Administrative Office of Courts Operations Division

The Administrative Office of Courts' Operations Division is responsible for providing operational services for approximately 1,700 judges, clerks of court, and judicial employees throughout the state. These functions include expense accounting, budgeting, purchasing, operations services, management operations, data processing, and personnel.

Expense Accounting. The expense accounting division manages the fiscal operations of the Alabama Judicial System. All accounting and processing of payrolls, claims for reimbursement, and other court expenditures are handled by the division.

The unit maintains and verifies property inventories for the entire Alabama Judicial System. This year, the inventory was increased by 1,251 pieces of equipment while 269 items were transferred to the sale lot.

The expense accounting division has responsibility for payment of all petit and grand juror expenses as well as sequestered jury costs. Approximately 65,000 certificates were issued to petit and grand jurors during FY 1987.

The expense accounting staff continues to provide support to the Supreme Court in the day-to-day operations of their expense accounting and inventory systems.

Budgeting. The budget officer for the Administrative Office of Courts prepares the annual budget request for trial court and administrative office operations. Budget requests for the Supreme Court and Courts of Criminal and Civil Appeals are prepared by the respective courts. A combined appellate, trial court, and administrative office budget is submitted to the legislature.

Purchasing. The purchasing unit requisitions all supplies, forms, and equipment for the trial courts and the Administrative Office of Courts. The unit processed 9,136 separate procurement documents in FY 1987.

During the year, the purchasing unit developed "median" price guidelines for the procurement of office supplies by local trial court officials. These guidelines, along with state contract information, were provided each official of the court system as part of the Administrative Office's Financial Operating Guidelines for FY 1987.

The purchasing unit assisted with the development of a computerized system for the electronic data entry of requests for printing of court forms and publications. The system provides a listing of such requests and an inventory of all forms and publications on hand as well as any actions related thereto.

Operations Services Division. The primary responsibilities of the operations services division are printing, office supplies, warehousing, vehicle maintenance, and telephone/postage services.

The print shop experienced a significant increase in production during FY 1987 as evidenced by the 2-1/2 million sheets of paper printed in the last quarter of the year. In addition to performing routine and special printing projects for the administrative office and the field, the division assumed responsibility for printing and shipping all one-part standardized court forms and special forms to court offices throughout the state. To assist in this endeavor, a computerized forms and publication system was developed which allows for a more efficient and productive print shop operation, a faster turnaround of printing orders, and an accurate inventory system.

With assistance from summer student help, 18,300 file folders from Jefferson County were recycled and distributed to Mobile, Montgomery, Madison and Etowah counties. At an estimated savings of 50 cents per folder, a total savings of $9,150 has been realized to date.

Management Operations. The management operations unit coordinates computerized court management services and data processing requirements with the state's trial courts which utilize the Statewide Judicial Information System (SJIS) Network.

During FY 1987, the SJIS network continued to provide services for ten court sites throughout Alabama. These ten courts processed approximately 50 percent of all the criminal, civil, and traffic cases filed in Alabama. Because of budget restrictions this year, no new sites were added to the SJIS network; however, 40 terminals and five printers were added to existing sites.

In the eight years since the introduction of the system, the network has grown in complexity and use. Seven systems are now in use - Criminal (ACS), Civil (CVCT), Traffic (ATS), Index (INX), Payment (PAY), Attorney (ATTY), and Witness Subpoena (WSUB).

At the close of FY 1987, the network contained 4,000,000 index records and 500,000 criminal, civil, and traffic case records and processed $20,000,000 in child support payments and $5,000,000 in restitution and court costs.

The SJIS program continued to be expanded in all areas with the implementation of revised criminal, traffic, witness subpoena, and court payments systems. Over 144 forms are produced for all SJIS systems, and 83 management and statistical reports detailing activity in any of the major areas can be routinely produced.

The Alabama Criminal System (ACS), initiated simultaneously in all ten sites in FY 1986, continues to provide expanded key retrieval and to produce 26 forms used in filing and disposition of cases and 27 statistical and management reports.

The Alabama Traffic System (ATS) was implemented in the summer of 1987 and provides record access by case number, name, UTC number, and drivers license number. The system produces 17 traffic related forms and 16 management and statistical reports.

Judicial Data Center. The judicial data center continued its expansion of support to both the trial courts and the Administrative Office of Courts during FY 1987. The network includes 263 terminals and 45 printers at 10 state court sites, the Supreme Court, and the Administrative Office of Courts.

The mainframe computer in the judicial center was upgraded in FY 1987 to maintain current user-response time.

Three additional disk storage devices were installed in the center to accommodate the ever-increasing volume of data being stored on the system and to provide normal response times for the users of the data. A heat sealer and forms separator were also installed to support the new juror summons forms and the increased use of notice mailers for the various systems located in remote sites.

In FY 1987, the Court Payment System, the Traffic Case Tracking System, and the Witness Subpoena System were either enhanced or redesigned to better fit the user's information needs.

The judicial data center reprogrammed 39 electronic cash registers utilized throughout the judicial system to reflect changes in court costs necessitated by the passage of the court cost bill by the Alabama legislature.

Personnel Division. The personnel staff provides personnel services for approximately 1,700 Alabama

Judicial System employees, including elected officials and merit and confidential employees in the trial and appellate courts.

The division recruits and conducts examinations and placement of personnel for merit system positions, processes appointments, separations and other personnel actions, and administrates leave, merit raises and fringe benefit programs. The division continued to process employee raises but actual payment was withheld until funds were available in July. Employees received retroactive lump sum payments at that time. Because of budget limitations, no new positions were approved and no positions were reclassified in FY 1987.

In compliance with federal law, revised W-4 forms were obtained from all judicial employees. Approximately 1,150 time and attendance reports were audited during the year.

Testing for merit court clerk positions was held quarterly at ten sites throughout the state. Approximately 1,900 applications for positions at the Administrative Office of Courts, the appellate courts, and the trial courts were processed during the year.

Court Assistance Division

The Court Assistance Division is primarily responsible for providing support and technical assistance to the circuit and district courts in the areas of case, jury, and records management. Through the development and implementation of improved systems and procedures, the division seeks to assist courts in streamlining ministerial functions and expediting the processing of cases. The division is responsible for the development and maintenance of the state's caseload reporting system and is charged with preparing periodic reports for the Alabama Supreme Court on judicial manpower needs in the circuits and districts. The Court Assistance Division also undertakes research on issues of key concern to circuit and district courts and is responsible for the publication of the Alabama Judicial System's annual report.

Case Management. The Court Assistance Division is responsible for the collection, data entry, and distribution of caseload statistics for each of the circuit and district courts in the 67 counties of the state. This data is verified for accuracy and is used to compile various management reports including manpower requirements reports and cost per jury trial statistics.

Weighted caseload systems were recently adopted by the Alabama Supreme Court for use as an additional criterion in determining additional judgeship needs. The case management staff are currently drafting a revised caseload reporting system to capture the new data required for implementation of the weighted caseload systems.

Additionally, when legislation is introduced providing for an additional judgeship, the division compiles a judgeship report which contains an analysis of the individual court's statistics based on the criteria established by the Alabama Supreme Court. This statistical analysis is submitted to the supreme court for its use in responding to the legislation as required by law. Similar reports are prepared in response to legislation promoting a change in judicial boundaries.

Jury Management. The jury management staff is responsible for ensuring that updated master lists are sent to each county which utilizes the picture drivers license list as their source list for jury selection. They also assist courts in implementing computerized juror selection processes. Currently, 53 courts have elected the one-step juror summoning process whereby jurors are summoned directly from the master list for a specified court term. Additionally, ten courts continue to use the computerized two-step qualification and summoning procedure in which qualification questionnaires are generated by the computer and mailed to prospective jurors.

Local jury commissioners (3 per county) manually review and qualify persons for jury service and place their names in the jury box for random selection by the local judge or his designee.

The jury management staff is responsible for data entry and daily mailing of computerized questionnaires and summonses. In FY 1987, 119,911 summonses and 33,900 questionnaires were mailed for participating courts.

Judge and Court Reporter Assignments. The Court Assistance Division regularly assists the Chief Justice in the special assignment of judges to certain courts or cases as necessary because of judges' recusals or circumstances which require that another judge be temporarily assigned to that jurisdiction.

Court reporters are also assigned to assist retired or active judges when they are assigned outside their local courts or when emergency situations prevent the regular court reporter's attendance.

Indigent Defense/Fair Trial Tax Fund. In order to meet the requirement that indigent defendants be given adequate legal representation, a Fair Trial Tax Fund was created in Alabama. A Fair Trial Tax is assessed on every criminal or quasi-criminal case and every civil action in the state. The state comptroller's office pays attorneys' claims out of this fund to the extent possible. Court Assistance staff monitor the revenues and disbursements of each county and circuit in the state and provide quarterly reports to the circuit and district judges on the status of the fund statewide and in their own jurisdiction.

Special Projects. The Court Assistance Division undertakes a variety of long and short range studies designed to improve the administration of justice in Alabama. During FY 1987, the division directed studies in the areas of indigent defense services, juvenile court services, and child support enforcement.

Indigent Defense Services: Because of the increasing deficit in the state's Fair Trial Tax Fund, the Joint Legislative Fiscal Committee requested the Administrative Office of Courts to review the status of indigent defense systems in the various courts and make recommendations for improvement. The Court Assistance staff, with assistance from the Director of the Alabama Judicial College, the Legal Division staff, and the staff of the Municipal Courts Division, assumed primary responsibility for the project.

After conducting a detailed review of indigent defense services, an overview of the existing indigent defense system was submitted to the Joint Legislative Fiscal Committee. This report identified areas where improvement was needed and specified actions to be undertaken to effect required changes.

Juvenile Court Services: The Court Assistance Division coordinates the provision of staff services to the juvenile courts and provides support to the Alabama Judicial Study Commission's Interagency Committee on Youth. During FY 1987, the Interagency Committee on Youth sponsored research projects in the areas of truancy prevention and permanency planning. In addition, the committee reviewed all legislation pertaining to juvenile issues submitted during the 1987 regular session of the legislature and cooperated with the Alabama Law Institute on the revision of the Children's Code.

Child Support Enforcement: The division staff worked with the trial courts and the Department of Human Resources to ensure that the requirements of the 1984 Child Support Enforcement Amendments to the Social Security Act were met.

The staff assisted the Child Support Enforcement Committee and the Department of Human Resource's staff in the development of the survey process for determining expedited process, prepared informational memoranda and documents for court personnel, and provided technical assistance to courts not meeting the expedited process requirements.

Staff assistance was rendered to the Child Support Enforcement Committee and a Subcommittee of Circuit and District Judges on Child Support Guidelines in developing guidelines for the determination of child support obligations. The staff researched guidelines developed in other states and assisted in drafting proposed guidelines and appropriate forms for Alabama. These advisory guidelines have been adopted by the Supreme Court as Rule 32 of the Alabama Rules of Judicial Administration, to be effective October 1, 1987.

Records Management. One of the primary goals of the records management staff is to assist trial courts in the effective management of their records, including such areas as records flow, records storage, records retention schedule implementation, records security, equipment evaluations and space usage. During FY 1987, 20 courts received on-site records management evaluations. Schedule implementation services, including identification of records eligible for destruction, destruction of records, and organization of records that must be retained, were provided to nine court sites.

Micrographics: Fifteen counties, representing 52 percent of the case filings in the state, and the Supreme Court are currently included in the micrographics program. Four counties were added during FY 1987.

This year, 1,724,071 images representing 65,017 case files were filmed; an increase of 17 percent over last fiscal year. The microfilming of court records continues to provide additional space in clerks' offices, eliminates the costs of purchasing additional filing equipment, improves records security, and makes case files more accessible.

Records Retention Schedules: With the assistance of the Judicial Records Retention Committee, a Juvenile Court Records Retention Schedule was developed and refined in FY 1987. The schedule was approved by the State Records Commission and the Supreme Court. Additionally, changes in the trial courts retention schedule were approved and distributed to the trial courts.

A total of 1,523 cubic feet of court records was destroyed in FY 1987 - 898 cubic feet through implementation of the records retention schedule and 625 cubic feet through the micrographics program. This is equivalent to 254 four-drawer filing cabinets of records and equates to a cost avoidance in equipment of $63,000.

Forms Management Program. The Records Management unit provides staff support to the Judicial Forms Analysis and Review Committee. The committee, appointed by the Chief Justice in FY 1986 and chaired by Presiding Judge Claud Neilson, 17th Judicial Circuit (Greene, Marengo, and Sumter counties), reviews existing forms used by the state trial courts and makes revisions as required or creates new forms as necessitated by the passage of legislation. Approximately 135 court forms were revised or created in FY 1987.

Legal Division

The Legal Division of the Administrative Office of Courts provides the Administrative Director of Courts , Administrative Office of Courts directors and staff, and the Chief Justice with research and legal advice on matters associated with and affecting the formulation of policy and decisions regarding the operation and administration of the Alabama Judicial System. The legal staff also receives and responds to inquiries from judges, clerks of court, court personnel, city officials, law enforcement officers, and employees and officials of other state agencies.

The Legal Division publishes Legal Notes, a monthly publication which includes an indexed summary of important points of law enunciated from selected opinions of Alabama's three appellate courts and the U. S. Supreme Court. The publication also includes synopses of selected Attorney General opinions and all opinions of the Judicial Inquiry Commission and the Clerk of the Supreme Court. Selected Supreme Court Rules, as well as proposed rules, are also included.

The legal division staff drafts legislation recommended by the Judicial System Legislative Council and the Alabama Judicial Study Commission. The staff also reviews legislation introduced in each session of the legislature and prepares constitutional position papers on local legislation pertaining to the judiciary as required by Section 12-1-6, Code of Alabama 1975.

The legal staff assists the Chief Justice in determining the eligibility of judges making application for retirement and determines the eligibility of clerks, registers, and court reporters to assume supernumerary status.

In FY 1987, the director of the Legal Division was named director of the Judicial Study Commission and assumed responsibility for the administrative and clerical support of the Commission.

Extensive revisions to the Alabama Rules of Judicial Administration were proposed to the Supreme Court's Standing Committee by the Legal Division during FY 1987. The Committee favorably endorsed the majority of these proposals and the recommendations were adopted by the Supreme Court and take effect October 1, 1987.

Municipal Court Operations Division

The Municipal Court Operations Division provides administrative and educational assistance to 283 municipal courts throughout Alabama. In addition, the division administers the uniform traffic ticket program and coordinates the statewide Driving Under the Influence (DUI) Court Referral Program.

Municipal Court Services. The Municipal Court Operations Division renders management assistance to municipal court judges, clerks and magistrates, and other municipal officials. The staff conducts records management studies and recommends specific improvements. On-site technical assistance and training is provided to municipal courts and police personnel on request of city officials.

In cooperation with the Alabama Judicial College, the division provides an orientation and continuing education program for municipal judges and employees. Regional seminars are held annually for court and police officials and personnel.

The division also assists municipalities in abolishing and reestablishing their courts.

UTC Program. The Municipal Court Operations Division has the responsibility for the design, distribution, and accountability of the Uniform Traffic Ticket and Complaint which is utilized by all law enforcement agencies in Alabama. With assistance from the legal division, the division staff updates the format and content of the traffic ticket each year as required by law or rule. Inherent in this responsibility is the requirement to review and revise the UTC Manual and answer questions from courts and other agencies regarding UTC procedures. In FY 1987, 750,000 UTCs were requisitioned by the division.

All law enforcement officers who make traffic arrests are required to use the UTC and receive training on utilization of the form from instructors at the several law enforcement training academies in the state.

DUI Program. Alabama's Driving Under the Influence (DUI) Court Referral Program was established in 1973. Since that time, great strides have been made to eliminate alcohol related accidents in Alabama.

Three levels of education and treatment have been incorporated into the DUI Program since its inception. Level I schools are conducted by 25 agencies at 56 locations throughout the state. These 10-hour schools are designed to provide instruction to individuals who are not identified as having a problem with alcohol.

The Level II program consists of 24 hours of instruction coupled with identification of characteristics which contribute to problems with alcohol.

In addition to introducing students to self-help groups, the schools maintain a one-year continuing care component to provide support to the defendant and to monitor the student's progress for the courts. There are presently 26 schools conducted by 24 agencies in the state.

The Level III phase of the DUI program is designed for those individuals who are found to have a problem with alcohol and/or drugs to the extent that they need treatment in an alcohol/drug abuse treatment facility. Following completion of the prescribed treatment program, those defendants are required to complete the Level I program and are placed on probation by the judge for two years. During this time, the defendants must remain active in the treatment program's continuing care group.

All DUI schools and instructors are certified by the Administrative Office of Courts. All alcohol and drug abuse treatment programs in the public and private sector which are certified by the Alabama Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation and which meet their minimum standards are approved by the Administrative Office of Courts for treatment of Level III defendants.

The Court Referral Officer (CRO) Program, instituted in FY 1986, was expanded this year through federal funding from the Office of Highway and Traffic Safety. Seventeen court referral officers now provide assistance to municipal and district courts in 31 counties in screening and monitoring the treatment of DUI defendants who are identified as having serious alcohol or substance abuse problems. It is anticipated that court referral officers will be made available to all Alabama courts within the next five years, dependent upon adequate funding.

In FY 1987, 14,240 DUI defendants were referred to the Level I program and 1,072 to the Level II schools. A total of 8,298 defendants was evaluated by Court Referral Officers in the last three quarters of FY 1987.

Court Relations Division

The Court Relations Division, in conjunction with the Administrative Services Division, coordinates governmental relations with legislative and executive officials. In addition, the division serves as liaison with other national, state and local groups and professional associations and develops all programs and publications designed to educate and inform the public.

With a 4.5 percent budget reduction proposed for the judicial system for the upcoming fiscal year, the director participated in a court visitation program designed to solicit assistance from the judicial community in working with local legislators to remedy the financial problems of the courts. As a result of this concerted effort by all members of the Alabama court system, a bill increasing court costs and appropriating additional funds to the courts received final passage by the legislature in June 1987.

The director of court relations attended all general sessions of the legislature and meetings of selected committees of both the House of Representatives and the Senate.

The division maintained a tracking system of bills affecting the courts and prepared a weekly Legislative Digest and a fiscal summary of bills enacted by the legislature for distribution to all court officials.

In cooperation with the Judicial Data Center, the division developed a computerized system for inventorying all court publications.

The Court Relations Division coordinated activities associated with the Bicentennial of the United States Constitution.

Judicial College

The Alabama Judicial College, a division of the Administrative Office of Courts, is charged with sponsoring and coordinating initial and continuing education for judges, clerks, and other court officials and employees of the Alabama Judicial System.

As a result of budget restrictions this fiscal year, the college conducted five conferences and assisted with seven others. A total of 1,184 court officials and employees participated in these educational programs, with 111 faculty members providing 101 hours of instruction.

In anticipation of adequate funding for FY 1988, the judicial college held six educational planning committee meetings to formulate plans for the coming year.

In cooperation with the Educational and Assessment Laboratory at the University of Alabama, the college developed a plan to formally evaluate judicial college programs and to survey all component groups of the Unified Judicial System. The evaluation and survey results will provide direction for consultation with deans of law schools, professors, judges and lawyers concerning judicial education and training requirements, course length and content, faculty, and equipment. As a result, the college will be in a better position to plan and deliver education and training to all components of the Alabama Judicial System.

SELECTED ACTS PASSED

FISCAL YEAR 1987

Act 87-405 - Increase Court Costs and Fees. (Effective Date - August 16, 1987)

This Act amends Sections 12-19-71, 12-19-72, 12-19-73, 12-19-74, 12-19-75, 12-19-171, 12-19-172, 12-19-173, 12-19-174, 12-19-175, 12-19-176, 12-19-178, 12-19-179, and 12-14-14, Code of Alabama 1975, to increase docket fees in circuit, district, and municipal courts.

Act No. 87-777 - Court Reporters Retirement and Supernumerary Status. (Effective Date - August 13, 1987)

This Act allows official court reporters who are now in office to elect coverage in the Employees Retirement System within one year of the effective date by filing notice of election with the Administrative Office of Courts and the Board of Control of the State Employees Retirement System. Such employees may purchase up to five years of prior service upon payment of a percentage of his annual compensation during the years of prior service. (The applicable percent is the sum of the prevailing percentage rates of employer and member contributions, as required by the most recent actuarial valuation by the State Employees Retirement System.)

All official court reporters employed after 10/1/87 will automatically be included in the Employees Retirement System.

This Act further amends Section 12-17-290, Code of Alabama 1975, to provide that a break in service will not affect supernumerary eligibility and places the responsibility to issue supernumerary court reporters' commissions on the Secretary of State, rather than the Chief Justice.

Section 12-17-292, Code of Alabama 1975, is amended, effective 10/1/88, to set the salary of supernumerary court reporters at 50% of the state salary paid to official court reporters.

Act No. 87-604 - Case Action Summaries as Proof of Prior Conviction. (Effective Date - July 23, 1987)

This Act allows the admission into evidence of certified copies of case action summaries or docket sheets to prove prior convictions of a crime, if the prior conviction is otherwise legally admissible, and authorizes the judge to prohibit the jury from viewing such records, if to do so would prejudice the defendant.

It is further provided that if either the case action summary or docket sheet indicates that the defendant was represented by an attorney, it will be presumed that the attorney was present and represented the defendant at all critical stages of the trial.

Act No. 87-625 - State Employees Longevity Pay. (Effective Date - July 25, 1987)

This Act provides:

1. Longevity pay for certain employees of the state which includes each person employed by the State of Alabama, except employees otherwise covered under the provisions of Section 36-21-3, Code of Alabama 1975, (State Law Enforcement Officers) and all legislative personnel, officers or employees, including but not limited to Legislative Reference Service personnel, whether subject to the state merit system or not, and

2. That each covered employee shall be entitled to receive in a lump sum the first pay period of December each year the sum of $300 per annum after said employee has served for a total period of five years and shall receive said payment until the tenth year of total service, at which time the payment shall be made in a like manner and at a like time but in the amount of $400 per annum until the fifteenth year of total service, at which time the payment shall be made in a like manner and at a like time but in the amount of $500 per annum until the twentieth year of total service, at which time the payment shall be made in a like manner and at a like time but in the amount of $600 as long as he remains in the service, and

3. That the longevity pay shall not be used in computing retirement or other benefits.

Act No. 87-750 - Circuit Clerks and Registers Salaries. (Effective Date - August 13, 1987)

This Act provides that the annual state salary payable to circuit clerks and registers, effective January 16, 1989, shall be $40,000 and provides that such increase shall in no event cause a register's state salary to exceed $40,000.

Act 87-253 - Teachers and State Employees Early Retirement. (Effective Date - June 23, 1987)

This Act amends Section 16-25-14(a) and 36-27-16(a), Code of Alabama 1975, to permit state employees or teachers to retire after 25 years of service at reduced benefits or delayed payment of benefits. Under these options, an employee may elect:

1. To receive benefits immediately at a reduced rate equal to 5/9ths of 1% x (a) the number of months that his retirement date precedes his or her 60th birthday, or (b) the number of months remaining for such employee to receive 30 years of creditable service, whichever is less

OR

2. To defer receipt of retirement benefits until (a) age 60, or (b) until the time that, but for early retirement, the employee would have been entitled to 30 years of creditable service, whichever is less
